Service Games

-1946: Service Games
 Sega started out as Service Games in Hawaii, providing coin based game machines to military bases, Eventually moving to Japan a few years later

-1968: The Arcade King
 The successful launch of Periscope led to Sega dominating the arcade scene, and the beginning of arcade games only costing a quarter.

-2002: Now a Publisher
 With Sony and Microsoft entering the console market and the Dreamcast's poor sales, Sega kept releasing quality titles as a third-party developer.

-1988: The Console Wars
 Now in a fierce competition with Nintendo for sales, the two companies were at eachother's throats, leading to the Sega Genesis/Mega Drive.

WELCOME THE PHILI

The Philippines is a place
With a distinct Asian flair,
the many beautiful islands
famous Natural Wonders

NATURAL

The Philippines hosts many natural parks and nature reserves open to the public. Home to unique plant & animal life, beautiful and fun locales shaped by mother nature dot the islands.

LUZON

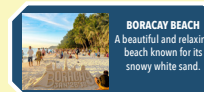

Luzon is known for its dense rainforests in the north, sprawling plains in its center, and its many lakes in the south. Not to mention its many dormant volcanoes.

VISAYAS

Visayas consists of several islands, primarily surrounding the Visayan Sea. Known for its picturesque beaches and trails leading to ancient volcanoes.

MINDANAO

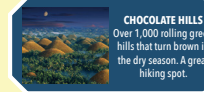

Mindanao is known for its many mountains and plateaus, with ten separate ranges on the one island. Many of the volcanoes on the island are now crater lakes.

BORACAY BEACH
A beautiful and relaxing beach known for its snowy white sand.

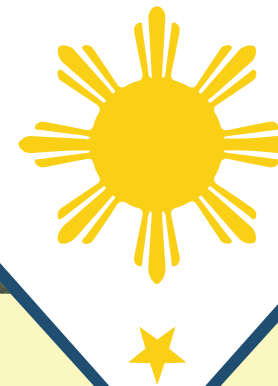

PUERTO PRINCESA
Home to an underground river with guided tours.

CHOCOLATE HILLS
Over 1,000 rolling green hills that turn brown in the dry season. A great hiking spot.

TUBATUBA REEF
A group of atolls full of marine life. Diving tours are available.

CULTURAL

Large cities like Manila host many destinations that have cultural or historical significance to the people of the Philippines. But some can be found out in the countryside too.

THE HANGING COFFINS
Coffins buried into the cliffside as part of the funeral ceremony of the people of Segoda.

FORT SANTIAGO
Gateway to the walled city of Intramuros, the bastion of Spanish rule in Manila.

AGUINALDO SHRINE
Site where the Philippines gained its independence from Spain.

PHILIPPINE EAGLE CENTER
Nature reserve centered on preserving the largest bird of prey in the world.

METRO-MANILA

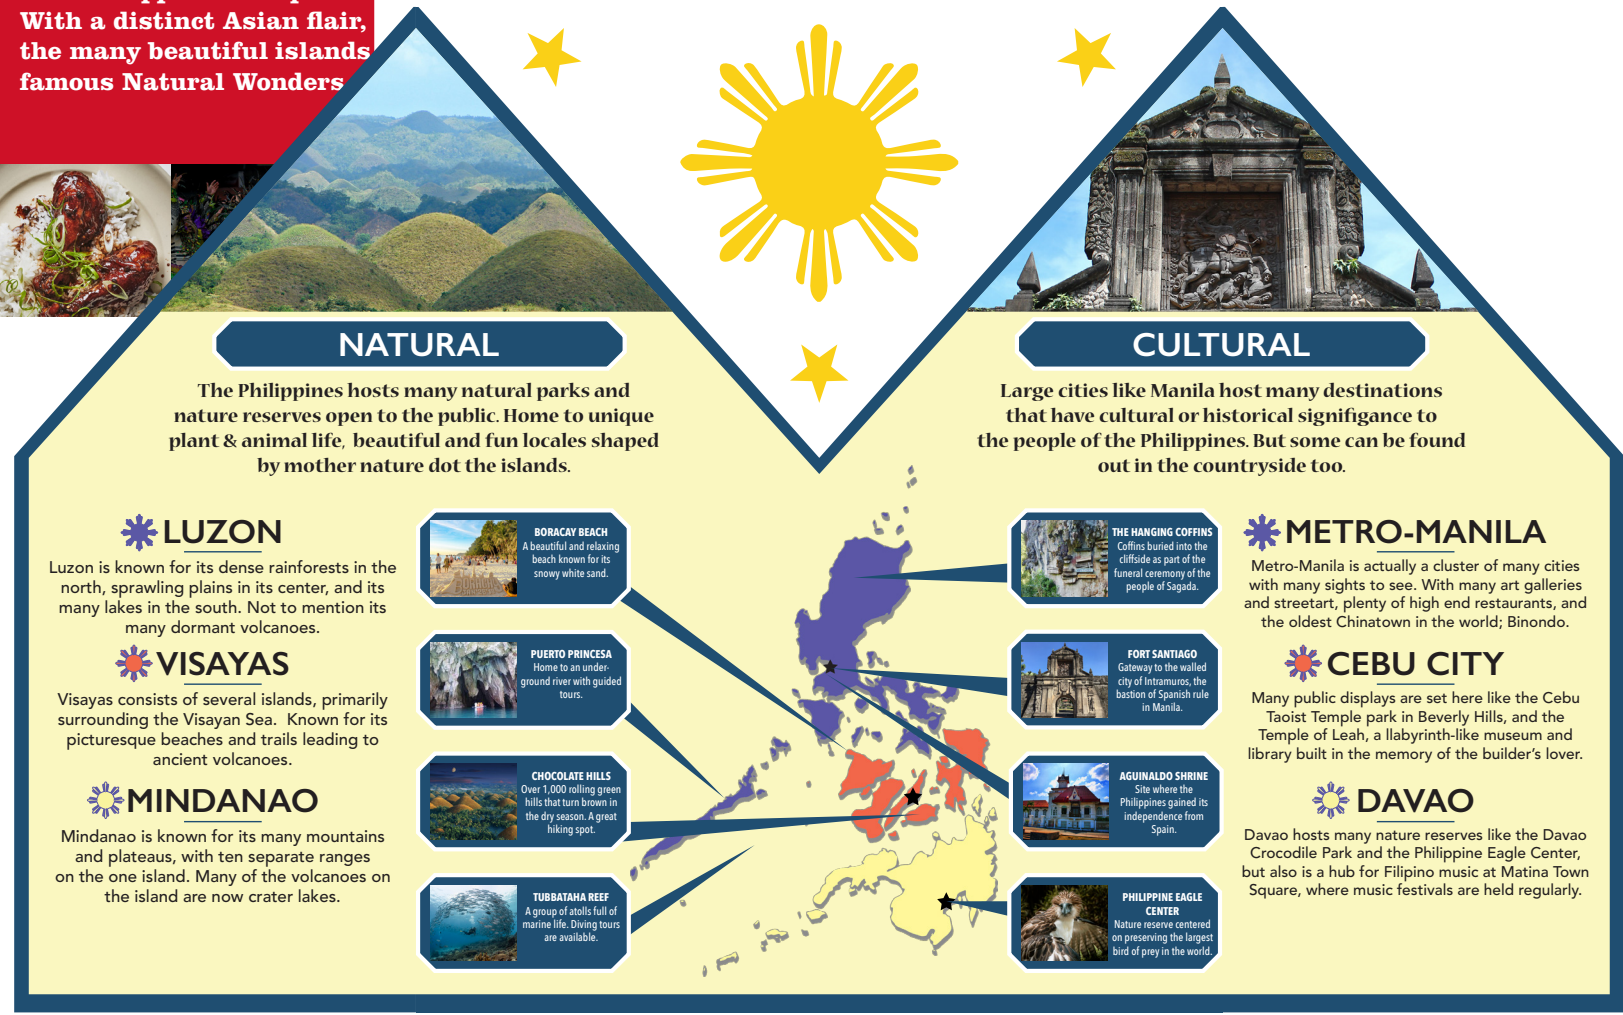

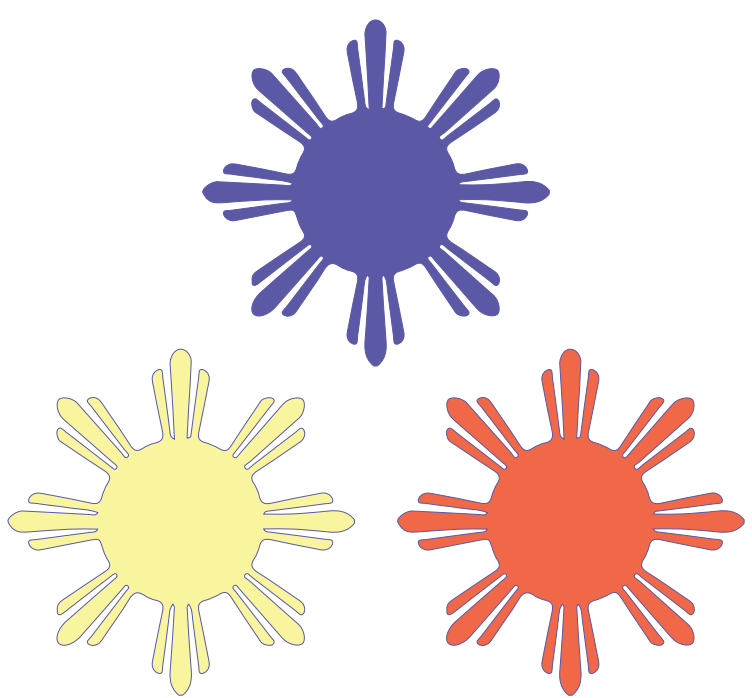

Metro-Manila is actually a cluster of many cities with many sights to see. With many art galleries and street art, plenty of high end restaurants, and the oldest Chinatown in the world; Binondo.

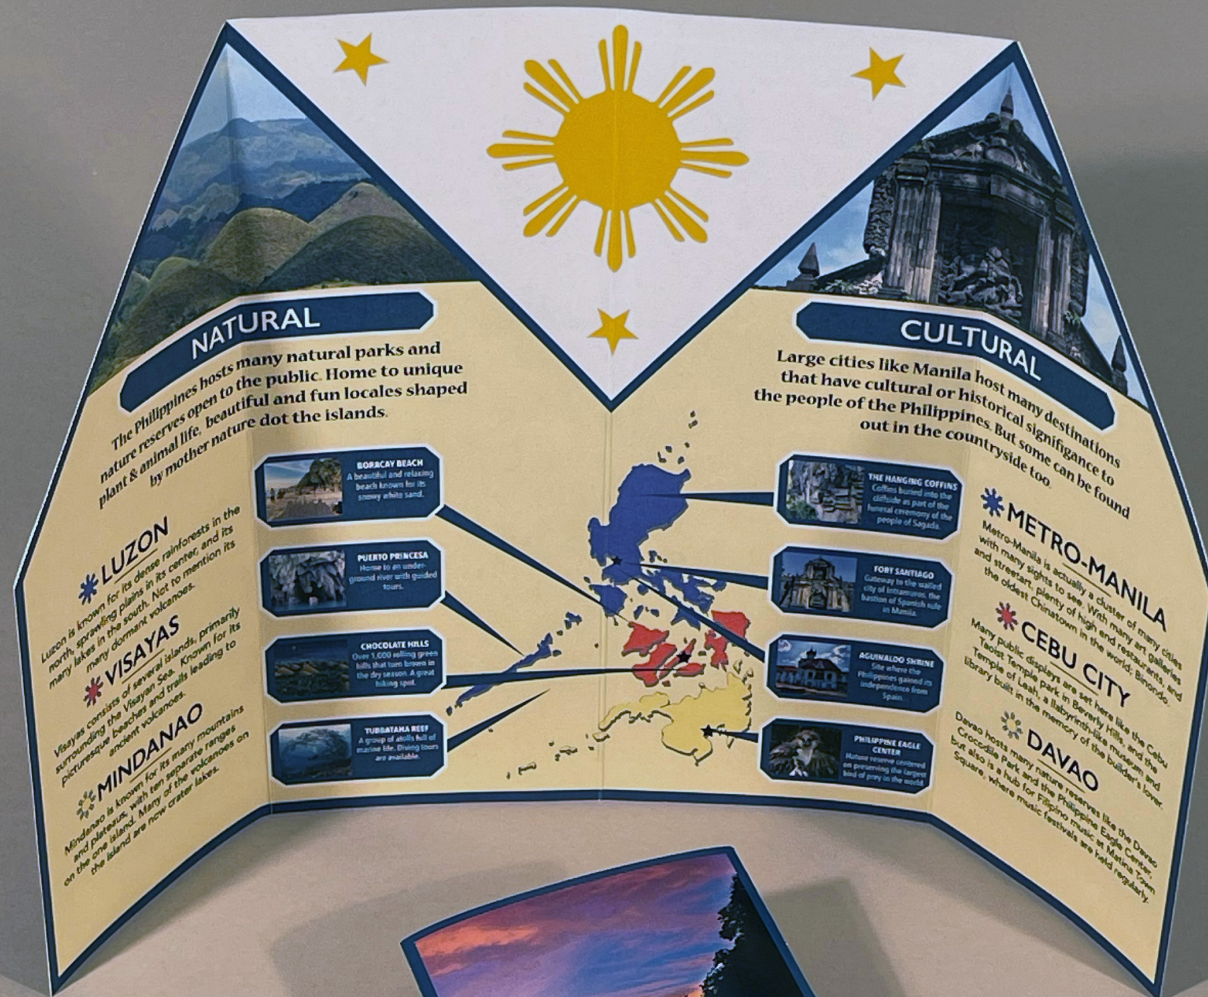

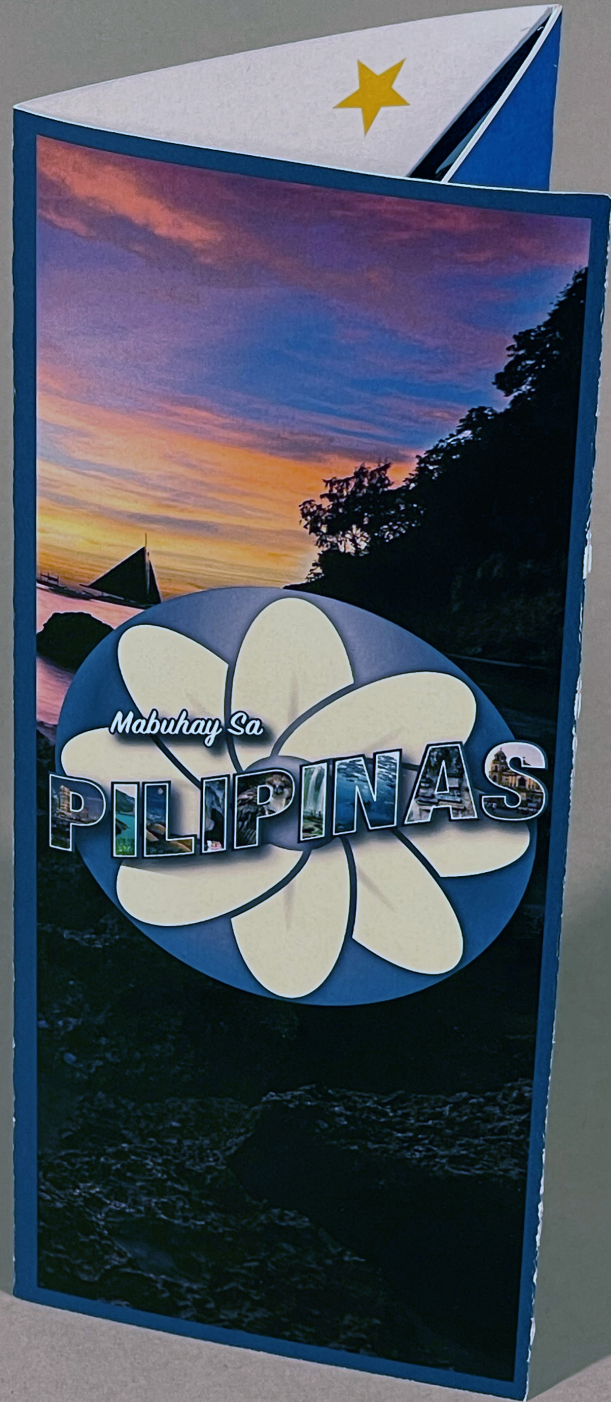

CEBU CITY

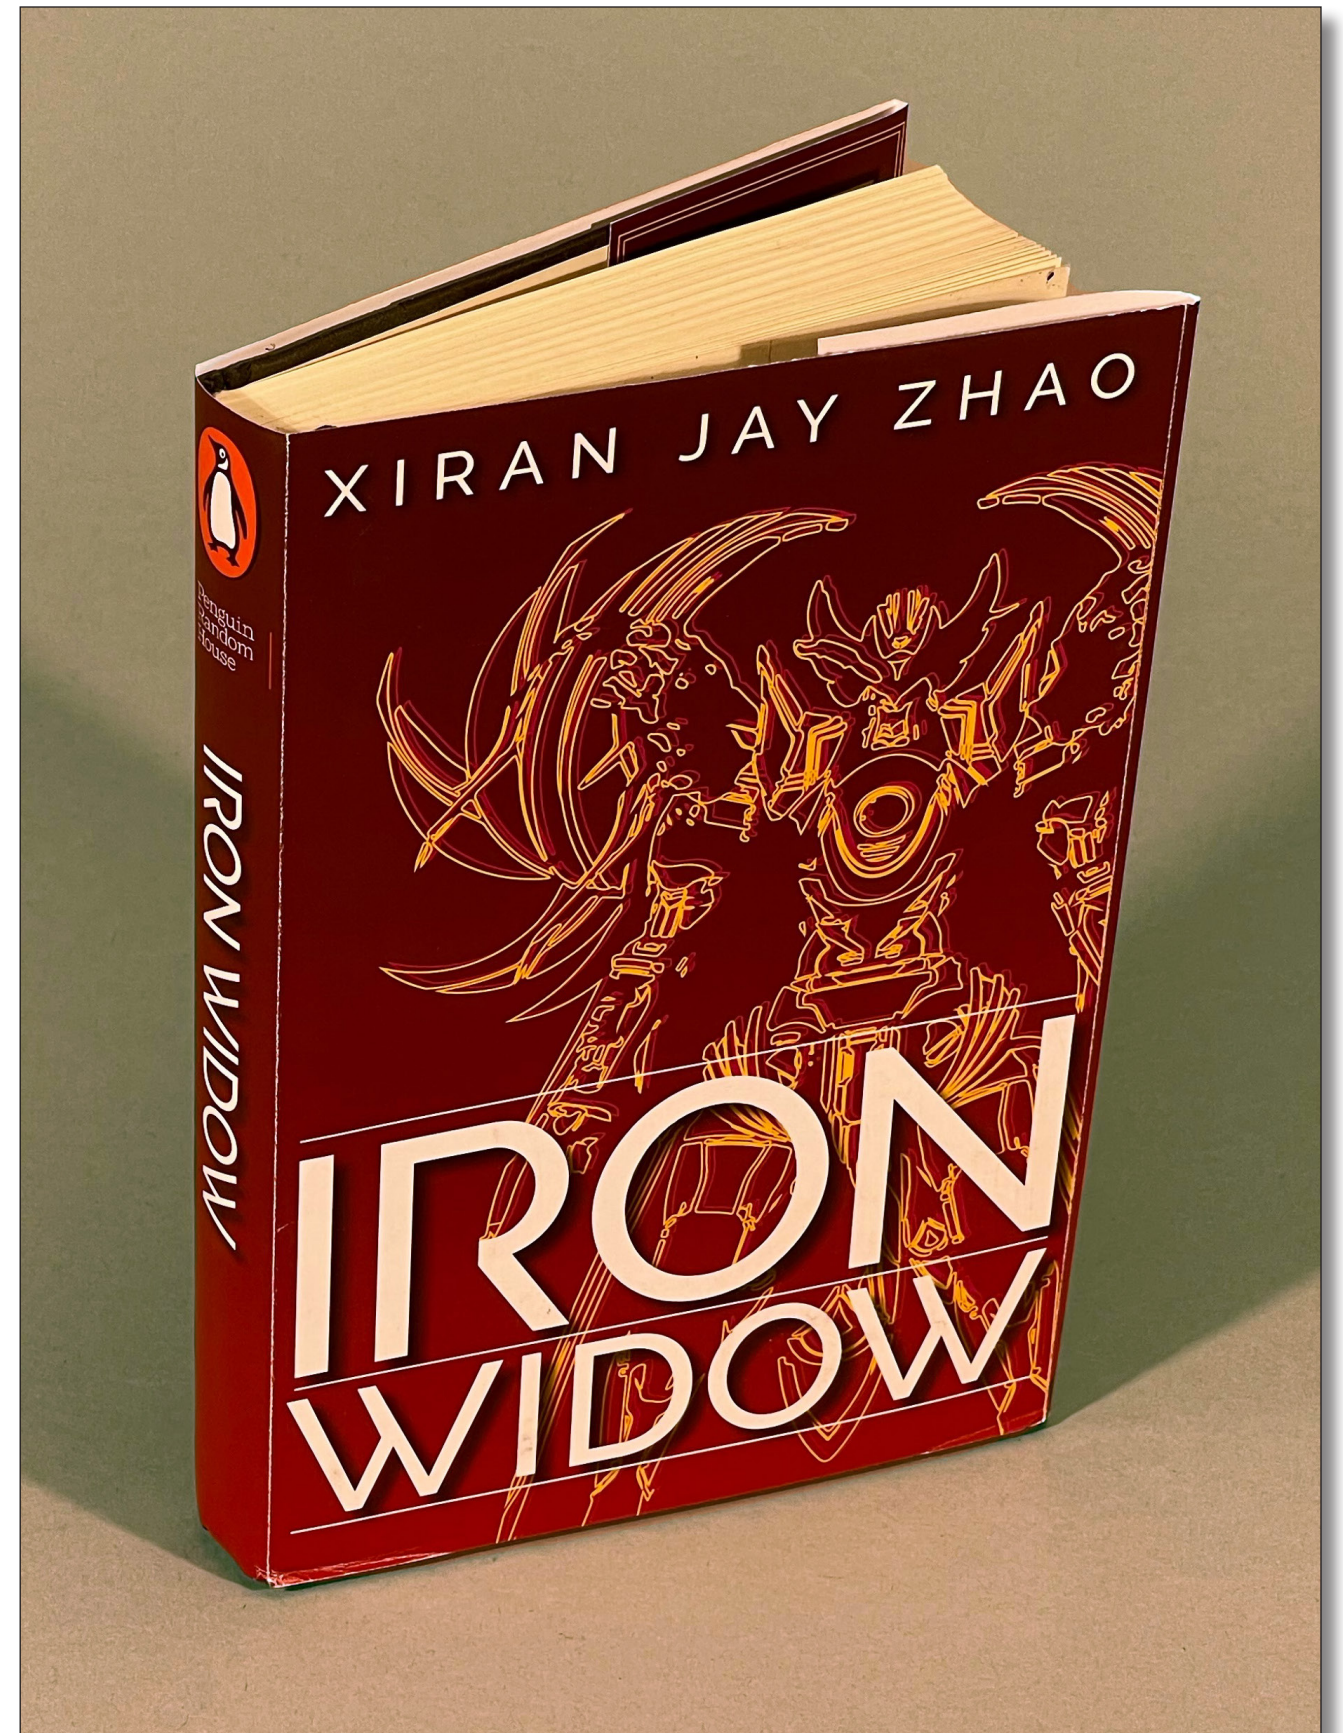

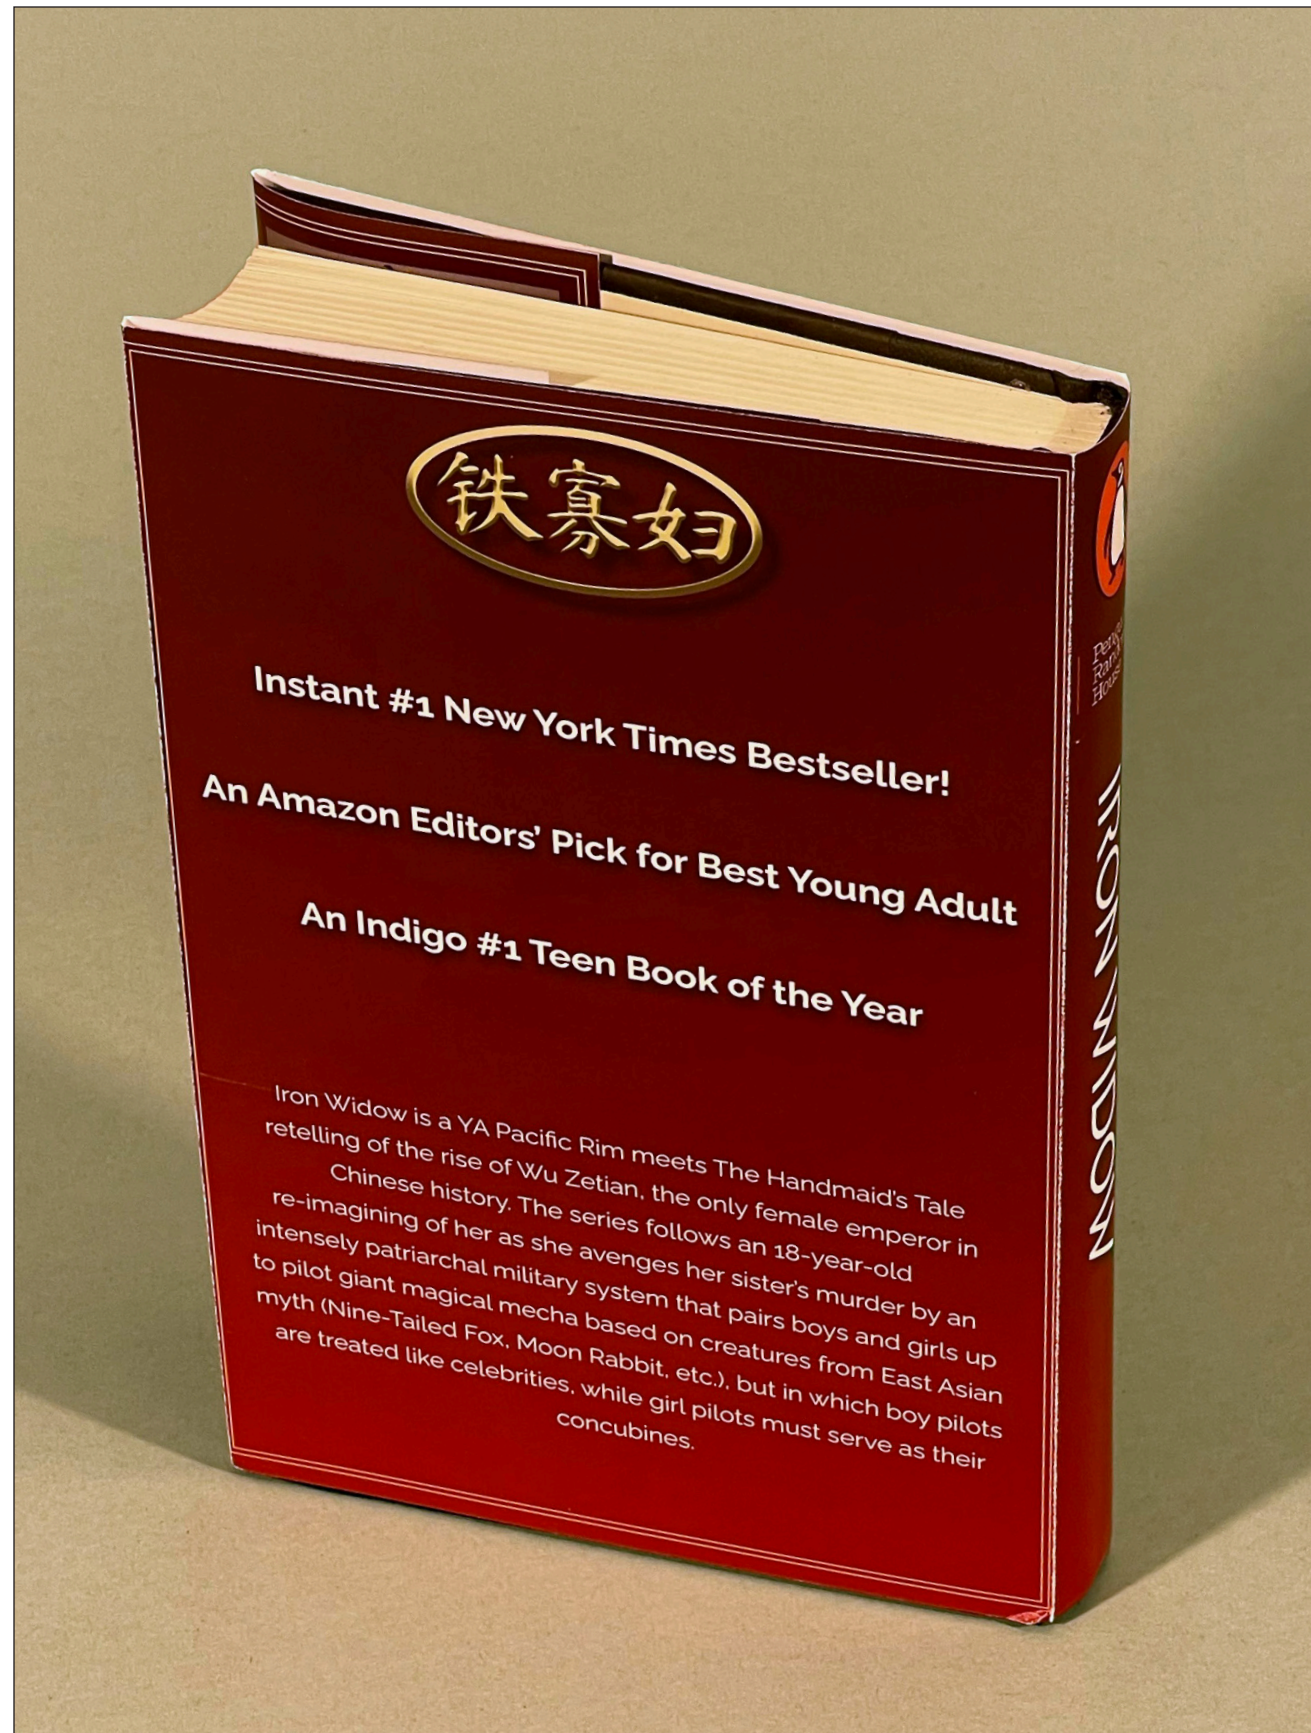

Many public displays are set here like the Cebu Taoist Temple park in Beverly Hills, and the Temple of Leah, a labyrinth-like museum and library built in the memory of the builder's lover.

DAVAO

Davao hosts many nature reserves like the Davao Crocodile Park and the Philippine Eagle Center, but also is a hub for Filipino music at Matina Town Square, where music festivals are held regularly.

Wu Zetian was a woman who rose from being a concubine to emperor Taizong, to become the only empress of China during the Tang Dynasty. She was one of the strongest rulers in Chinese history. She was ruthless, and rose to power by eliminating the actual empress consort and the other concubines. Her drive for power is what made her feared, and even respected by her subordinates.

An Indigo #1 Teen Book of the Year

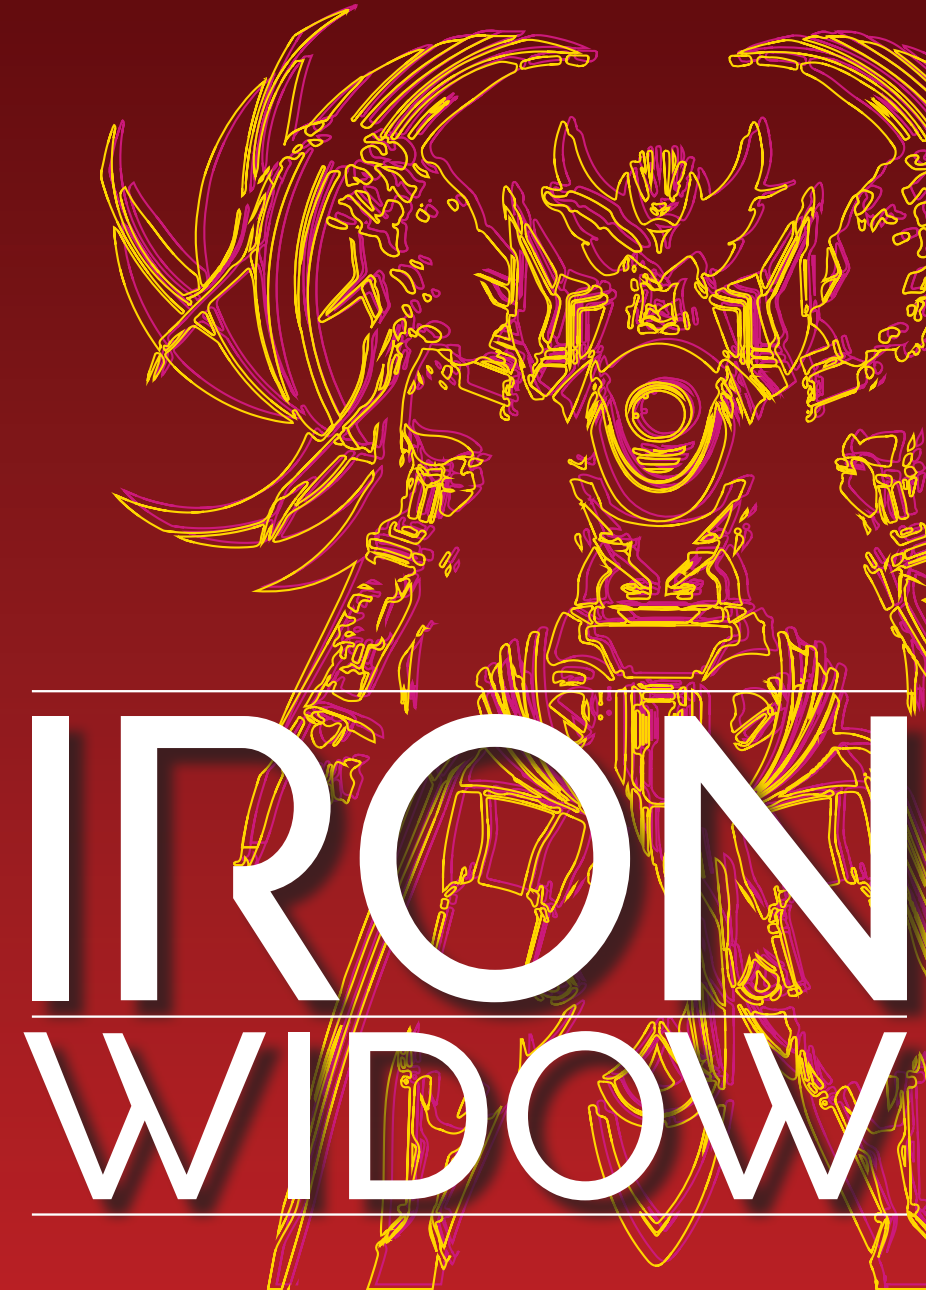

Iron Widow is a YA Pacific Rim meets The Handmaid's Tale retelling of the rise of Wu Zetian, the only female emperor in Chinese history. The series follows an 18-year-old re-imagining of her as she avenges her sister's murder by an intensely patriarchal military system that pairs boys and girls up to pilot giant magical mecha based on creatures from East Asian myth (Nine-Tailed Fox, Moon Rabbit, etc.), but in which boy pilots are treated like celebrities, while girl pilots must serve as their concubines.

IRON WIDOW

XIRAN JAY ZHAO

Xiran Jay Zhao is a first-gen immigrant from small-town China who was raised by the Internet. A recent graduate of Vancouver's Simon Fraser University, they wrote science fiction and fantasy while they probably should have been studying more about biochemical pathways. You can find them on Twitter for memes, Instagram for cosplays and fancy outfits, and YouTube for long videos about Chinese history and culture. Iron Widow is their first novel.

WELCOME BACK TO SINNOH

This wonderful region of the Pokemon world is home to many biodiverse areas, striking locales and plenty of powerful Pokemon trainers to battle. Whether you call this place home, or are a newcomer, there's plenty of things to see and do in Sinnoh.

Once known as the Hisui Region, the Sinnoh Region is the coldest and most northern region in the Pokemon World. Home to many rare and powerful Pokemon to make friends with or battle, the Sinnoh Region is where the bonds between humans and pokemon first emerged.

- 1 CANALAVE CITY: Home to a library with books and scrolls dating back thousands of years, as well as tours to nearby Iron Island, where many steel-type Pokemon call home.
- 2 JUBILIFE CITY: This bustling city has everything a rising Pokemon Trainer could ever need. From the latest digital watches from the Poketch Company, to the Global Trade Station, connecting trainers across the globe.
- 3 RAMANAS PARK: A serene park and outdoor art gallery owned by the Ramanas family, housing statues of legendary Pokemon. Perhaps you can meet some of them.
- 4 ETERNA CITY: From here you can enter the Grand Underground, a mining network underneath the whole region. Mine rare treasures to keep, build secret bases, and catch Pokemon you can't find on the surface.
- 5 MT. CORONET: The tallest mountain in the world hosts many secrets. From underground lakes with rare Pokemon hiding in, to the grand ancient temple at its summit: Spear Pillar.
- 6 CELESTIC TOWN: A quiet village in the shadow of Mt. Coronet, here can be found ancient artwork depicting extinct Pokemon and a time when the lives of both Humans and Pokemon were separate.
- 7 HEARTHOME CITY: The perfect place to flaunt your Pokemon. Compete in Super Contest Shows, walk with your Pokemon in Amity Square, and meet exotic Pokemon at the Trophy Garden.
- 8 SOLACEON TOWN: A quiet ranch town, but that's not all to it. Nearby are the Solaceon Ruins. An archaeological site open to the public, where ancient glyphs and writing depicting the Hisuian Creation myth can be found.
- 9 GREAT MARSH: A nature reserve filled with many rare Pokemon. Here you can play the Safari Game, where you delve into the marsh and can catch up to 30 Pokemon.
- 10 VALOR LAKEFRONT: The perfect vacation getaway. Situated on the shores of beautiful Lake Valor, as well as the sea to the south, this pristine resort isn't too far away from the brightest city in Sinnoh: Sunyshore City.
- 11 POKEMON LEAGUE: The end goal for all trainers in Sinnoh. Challenge the 8 gyms across the region and get the chance to fight the strongest trainers in the World.
- 12 BATTLE ZONE: Here is the gateway to more intense and competitive battling. Home to the Battle Tower, trainers compete in tournament brackets to get to the top and become the Tower Tycoon.

NAVIGATING STARFALL

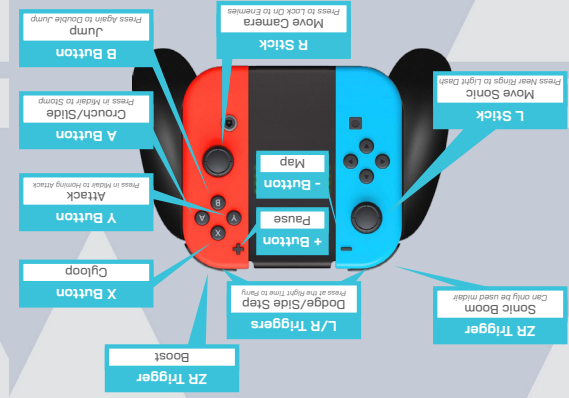

CYBER SPACE
These are secluded levels inside a digital dimension and are shaped from Sonic's memories. Gameplay here is similar to titles like Sonic Unleashed or Sonic Adventure 2.

OPEN ZONE
Here, Sonic can run around open wilderness filled with ancient ruins and structures. Giant enemies called Titans inhabit every corner of this open world. It's not like anything you've seen in a Sonic game.

THE CONTROLS

If you want to survive everything the Starfall is-lands throw at you, you're gonna want to memorize this page. But just pressing buttons willy-nilly won't save your friends. You'll need to perfect everything in Sonic's arsenal.

SONIC FRONTIERS™

THE STORY

Sonic, Tails and Amy have embarked on a journey to the Starfall Islands where an ancient civilization once existed and untold tragedies have transpired to investigate the disappearance of the Chaos Emeralds. However, things take a turn for the dramatic quickly. As they approach the islands, sudden trouble hits their plane, and they're sucked into a wormhole. Sonic soon after finds himself separated from his friends, eventually awakening in a strange, digital world - Cyber Space. Miraculously, he manages to escape Cyber Space and the bewildered hedgehog soon wakes up all alone on the Starfall Islands, which is full of ancient ruins where strange enemies roam. There, Sonic encounters an AI calling out to him, who calls him out for achieving the "impossible" by escaping Cyber Space, claiming that he is "the key". This AI proceeds to give Sonic some cryptic direction about how to save his friends. Collect the Chaos Emeralds, destroy something called the "Trans" and to "tear down the walls between dimensions". Deciding that this guidance is better than nothing, Sonic sets out on a journey to discover all the mysteries of the Starfall Islands, rescue his friends, and in a race against time to defeat Dr. Eggman.

Items

ITEMS

- Rings
Collect one to stay alive. The more you have, the faster you are.
- Chaos Emeralds
Remember, chaos is power. Find all seven to go Super Sonic.
- Memory Tokens
The scattered shards of your friends' data. This one is Amy's.
- Portal Gears
The keys to Cyber Space. Find these by destroying Titans.
- Vault Keys
They'll guide you to the Emeralds. You'll find them in Cyber Space.
- SP and Seeds
Red ones give you more attack. Blue ones give you more defense.

Cyloop goes a long way-
This is one of your strongest moves. You can stun as many enemies as you want with one Cyloop. Don't forget to boost while drawing the loop too.

Don't forget Wild Rush-
Pressing Y right after L/R will activate Wild Rush. It's perfect to get back in the fight after the enemy attacks.

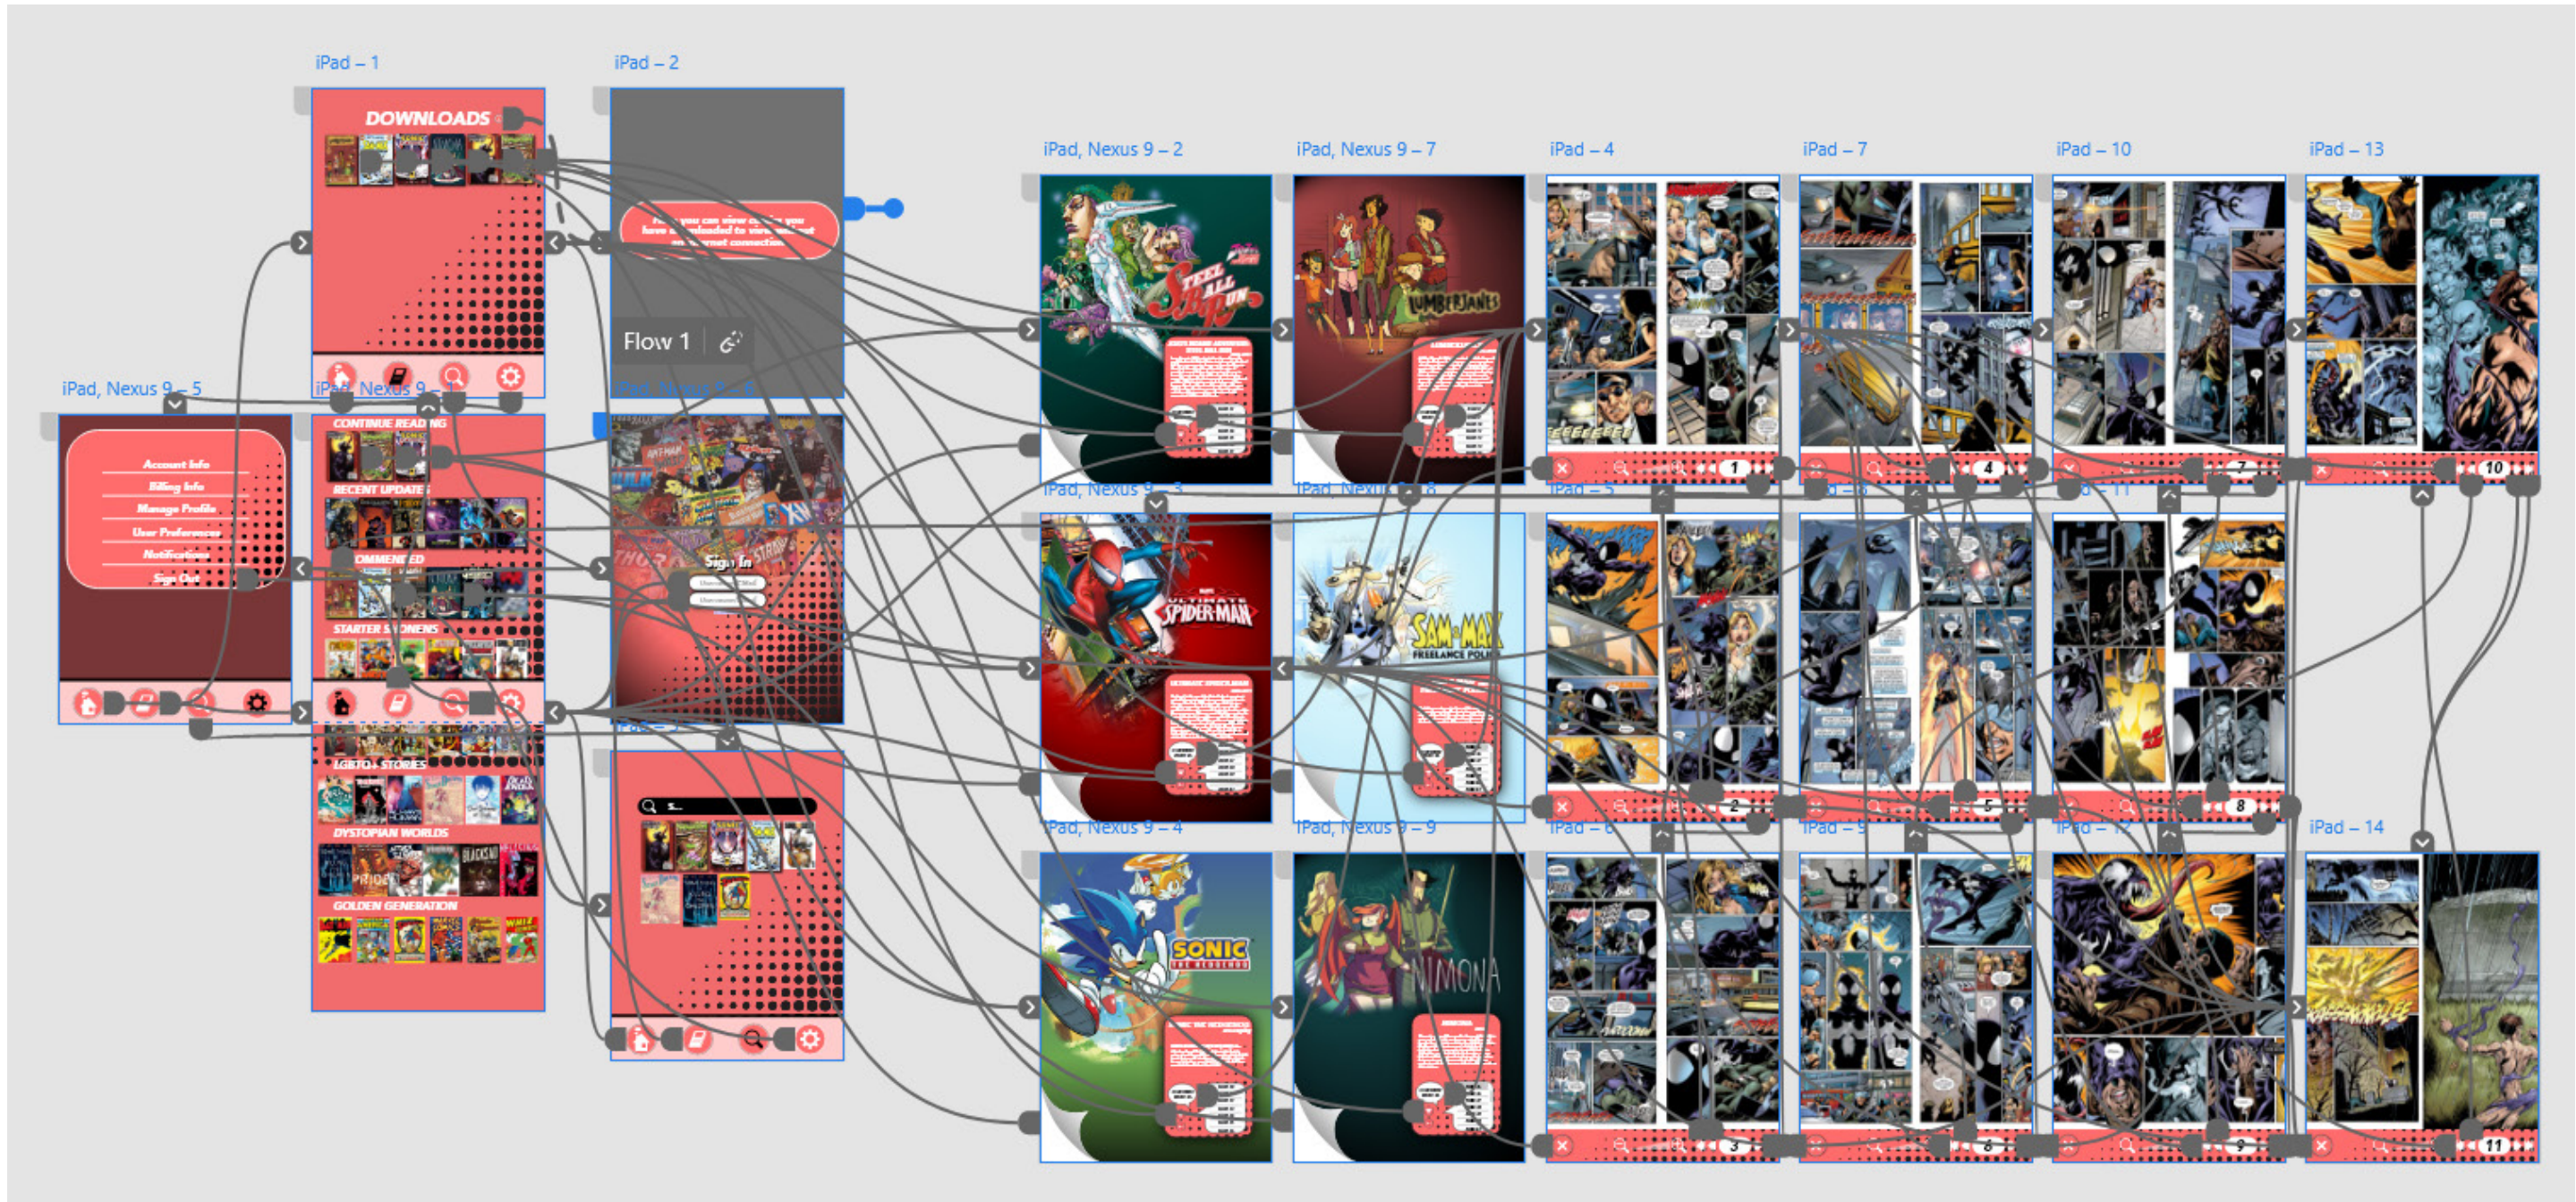

Sonic Boom is your best friend-
Keep spamming Sonic Boom to preserve your combo. Once the combo meter is filled, Phantom Rush activates. Only good things happen with Phantom Rush.
